

Sub-states / County teams learn foes

Sacred Heart and Republic County, both members of the North Central Activities Association, split their two regular-season games. The Knights won at Belleville 46-38 in January, while the Buffaloes won the rematch last week in Salina, 45-38.

The Sacred Heart-Republic County winner will meet either Solomon (12-8) or Minneapolis (9-11) in the sub-state semifinals Friday, March 6 at Republic County.

Ell-Saline

The Ell-Saline boys and girls teams are also competing in the Republic County 2A sub-state. The Cardinal boys will go on the road in the opening round, while the girls have a first-round game at home.

The Ell-Saline boys (3-17) face top-seed Republic County (18-2) in Monday's 7 p.m. contest at Belleville. The winner of that game will play in Thursday's semifinal against Minneapolis (10-10) or Bennington (10-10).

The Ell-Saline girls (10-10) open against Smith Center (9-10) in a 7 p.m. contest Tuesday at Ell-Saline High School. The winner moves on to Friday's semifinals and takes on either top-seed Osborne (14-5) or Bennington (2-18).

Boys and girls championship games at the Republic County sub-state will take place Saturday, March 7, and the sub-state winners advance to the Class 2A state tournament starting March 11 at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan.

Southeast of Saline

The Southeast of Saline girls, hoping to make back-to-back state tournament appearances, have earned the top seed at the Class 3A sub-state next week at Marion High School.

The Trojans (14-6) received a first-round bye in the seven-team sub-state and are assured a spot in the sub-state semifinals on Thursday, March 5 at Marion. Southeast will meet the winner of Monday's first-round game between Marion (12-8) and Halstead (12-8).

First-round games in the other half of the Marion girls sub-state will have Hutchinson Trinity (13-6) facing Sedgwick (9-11), and Hillsboro (10-9) playing at Remington (12-8).

The Southeast of Saline and St. John's Military boys have both drawn difficult first-round opponents. Southeast (3-17) takes on top-seed and unbeaten Hutchinson Trinity (19-0) in a 7 p.m. contest Tuesday at Hutchinson.

The Southeast-Hutch Trinity winner will play either Halstead (11-9) or Remington (6-14) in Friday's semifinals at Marion.

St. John's Military

St. John's Military (3-16) opens with a 7 p.m. contest Tuesday at Sedgwick (18-2). The St. John's-Sedgwick winner faces either Hillsboro (12-7) or Marion (5-15) in the Friday semifinal.

Sub-state championship games at Marion will be held Saturday, March 7, with the winners advancing to the 3A state tournament starting March 11 at the Hutchinson Sports Arena.
